UNDERSTANDING YOUR HEALTHY BUILDING SCORE

Honeywell Forge integrates building controls, air quality sensors, video feeds and secure access points then applies advanced analytics to calculate a simple, real-time Healthy Building Score. From a single campus to a global portfolio, this score helps leadership guide processes, protect compliance and optimize business continuity when every advantage matters. Companies can also display scores publicly to help technicians and workers feel comfortable in your spaces.

WHAT'S IN THE HEALTHY BUILDING SCORE?.

The Healthy Building Score is aggregated from a variety of data sources, such as:
